The 1991 HACAWA presents two parallel themes: Lenoir-Rhyne's one hundred years and Lenoir-Rhyne's one hundredth year. Throughout our pages we present images of "Fair Star of Caroline" from 1891-1990. And we present the people and events of the academic year, 1990-1991.

Thus, volume 84 of the HACAWA is actually two books in one. We will look back at the rich history of Lenoir College, which ultimately became Lenoir-Rhyne. And we will share the color and excitement of LR these past nine months.

Because the 1991 HACAWA is such a very special book, it is not dedicated to a single person. It is, rather, dedicated to a large number of people — men and women whose lives have been woven into the history of this place.

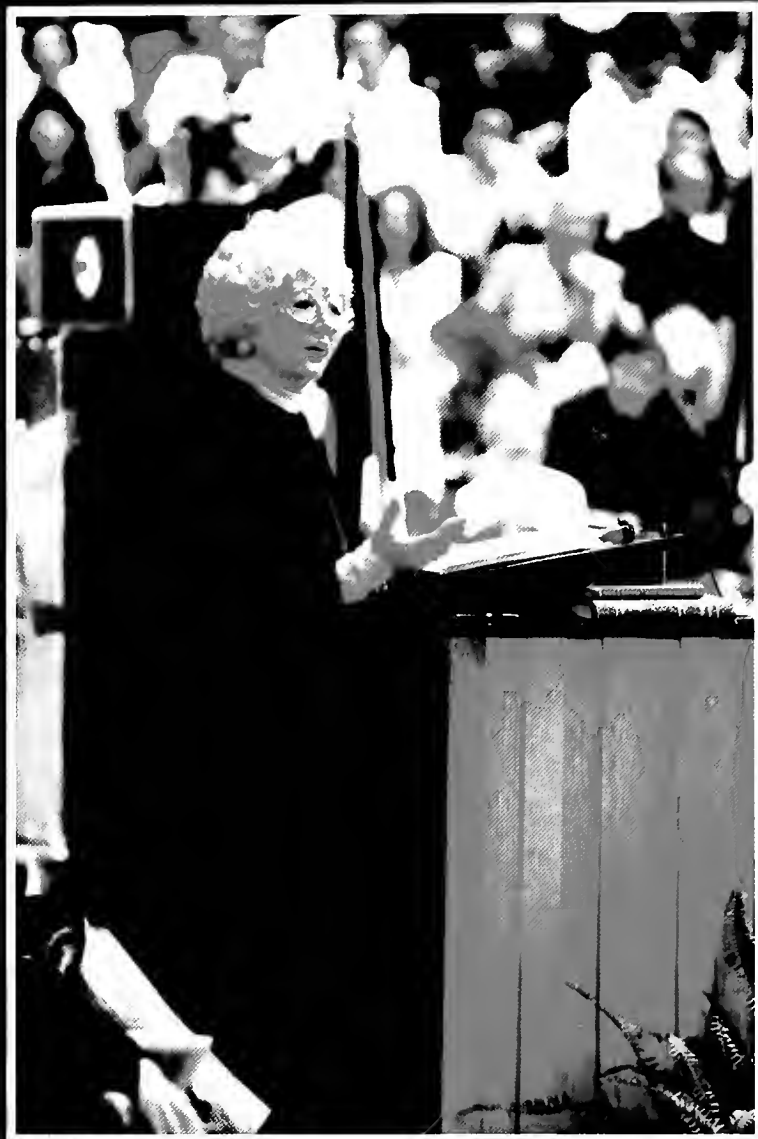

Dr. Robert Fritz, second president of the college, spoke of the founders when he wrote, "these men have been, and are even today, living witnesses . . . of their own immortality in the founding and early development of this college . . . their names and deeds — and the names and deeds of all others who have nobly contributed to the making and saving of this Christian Institution — shall be known, and cherished, and honored."

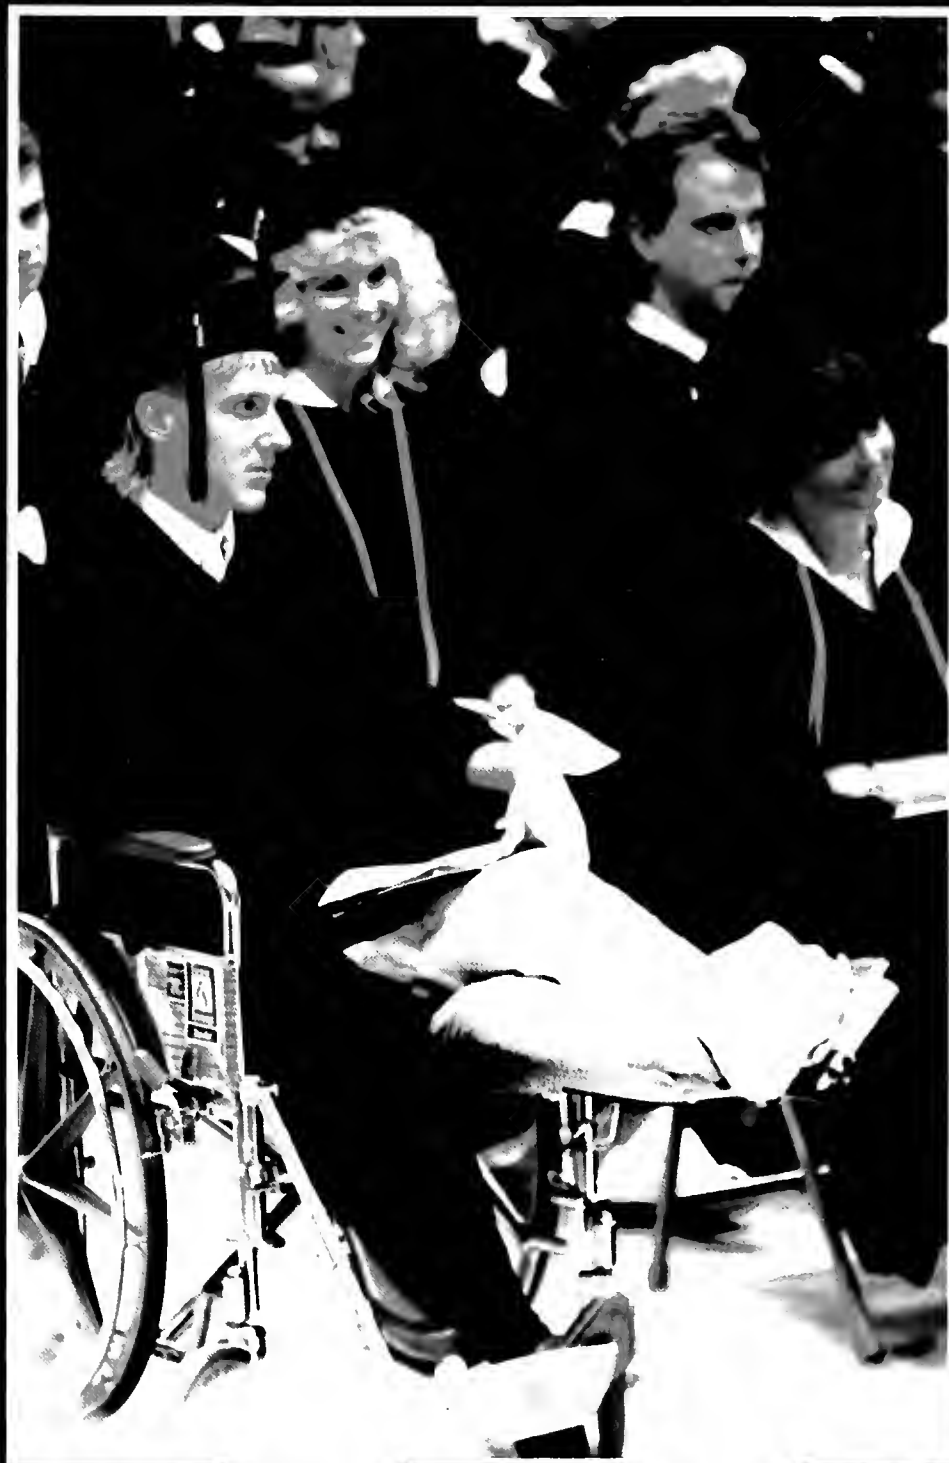

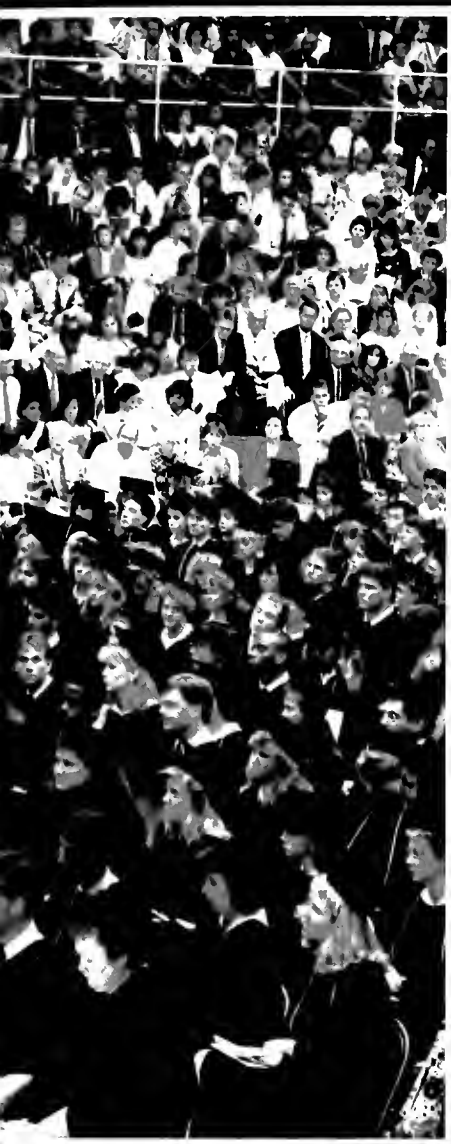

To all who have "nobly contributed to the making and saving of this Christian Institution" we dedicate the 1991 HACAWA.

99th YEAR ENDS WITH COLOR OF GRADUATION

FAIR STAR OF CAROLINE . . .

Lenoir-Rhyne College has reached the 100th anniversary of its founding as an institution of higher learning. The school was chosen in 1989, and again in 1990, as one of the best liberal arts colleges in the nation.

Four Lutheran pastors believed in the cause of Christian education strongly enough that they were willing to advance their own personal monies to establish a four-year college in western North Carolina that would be devoted to the liberal arts.

From land donated by Walter Lenoir, a college did spring forth from the old Highland Academy building on September 1, 1891. It would shortly come to be called Lenoir College.

The Institution grew and prospered. But the demands of the day were heavy and only the generous contributions of many people saved the college. Particularly the gifts of Daniel Rhyne of Lincoln County. Soon the college became know as Lenoir-Rhyne.

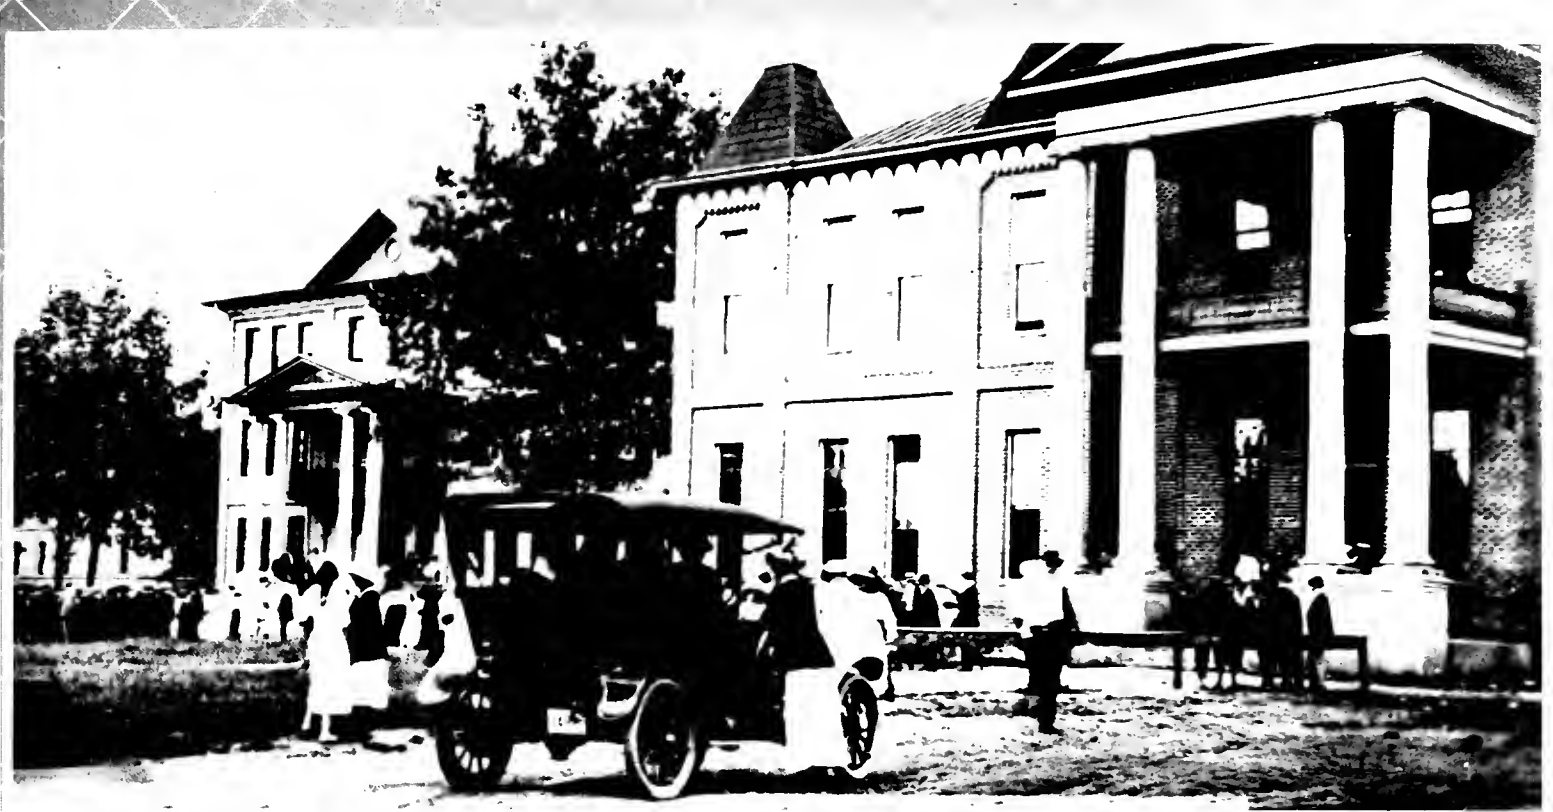

The future of LR is bright. Her sons and daughters may be found around the globe. Her curriculum has been strengthened to the needs of the present while retaining the values of the past. Her centennial campaign holds promise of a stable and sound future. "May she forever shine, pure, bright, victorious."

260 RECEIVED DEGREES ON MAY 13

The 99th Commencement Exercises of Lenoir-Rhyne were held on May 13, 1990, at which time 260 received their degrees.

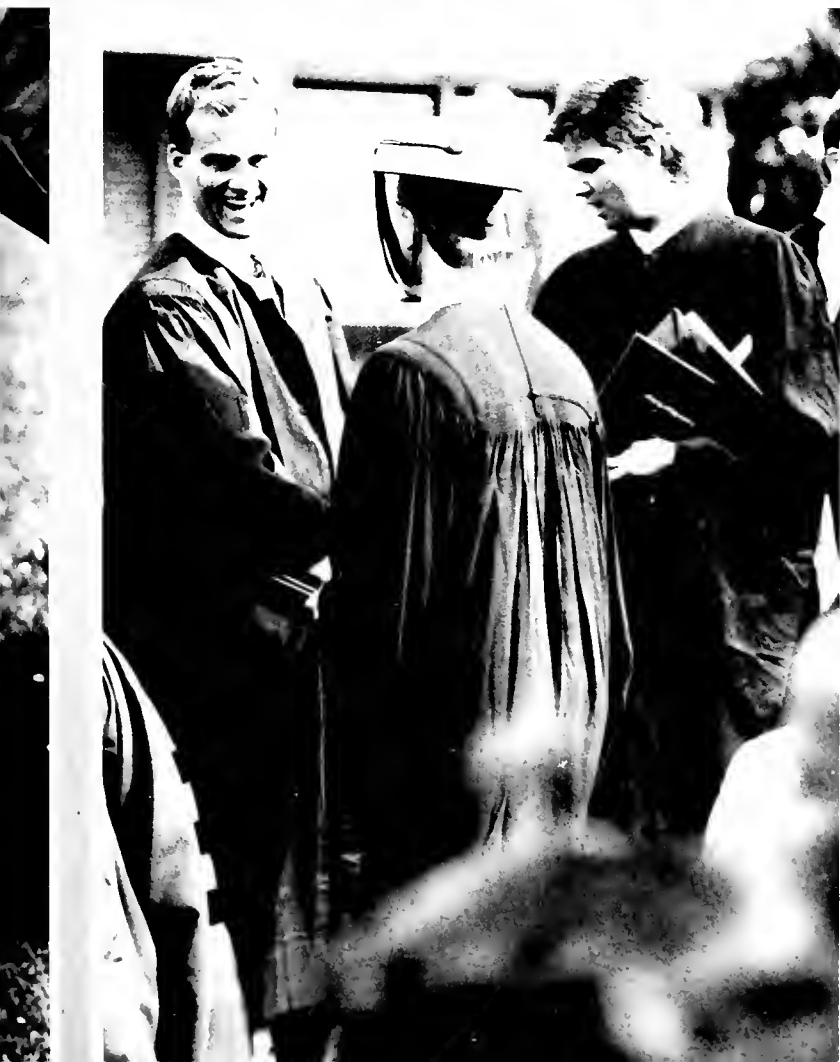

Kerri Childers and Susan Brookshire were tied for First Honor Graduate at a perfect 4.00 average.

The graduation address was offered by Dr. Betty Siegel, President of Kennesaw State College (Ga.)

WORLD LUTHERAN LEADER OPENS YEAR

With the arrival of 1990-91, Lenoir-Rhyne College began observance of its centennial as an institution of higher learning.

The celebration began with Opening Convocation on August 31, 1990. The principal address was offered by Dr. Gunnar Staalsett (above), General Secretary of the Lutheran World Federation. A native of Norway, Dr. Staalsett offered an inspiring picture of a world poised on the edge of the 21st century.

The convocation featured music by the college Wind Ensemble and the A Cappella Choir and opened with the singing of the magnificent hymn, "God Of Our Fathers."

Greetings to the assembled group were brought by Bishop Michael McDaniel, Hickory Mayor William McDonald, Alumni President Vivienne Stafford, LR Faculty Chair Dr. Jane Jenkins, and SGA President Heather Schwartz.

General remarks were made by LR President Dr. John Trainer, Jr., and by Dr. Ellis Boatmon, chairman of the Centennial Observance Committee. Dr. David Hoyle, Chairman of the College Board of Trustees, declared the Centennial formally opened.

Shuford Gymnasium was filled with students, faculty, clergy, and townspeople as Lenoir-Rhyne entered into the final year of its first century and with hope and confidence moved toward its second one hundred years.

The Processional at Opening Convocation featured the clergy of the North Carolina Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, the Trustees of Lenoir-Rhyne, and the faculty. All three groups are seen above as they join in the opening hymn. A high moment of the convocation was the singing of "O Day Full Of Grace" by Melius Christiansen and directed by E. Ray McNeely, Jr. (below). The choir included not only LR students, but alumni and community folks as well.

FACULTY "ROAST" HONORS FOUR

OCTOBER SERVICE AT ST. ANDREW'S

The program, conducted at St. Andrew's Lutheran Church in Hickory, featured an appearance by The Reverend Dr. Herbert W. Chilstrom, Bishop of the national Evangelical Lutheran Church.

President John Trainer, Jr. served as master of ceremonies, while The Reverend Dr. Michael McDaniel, Bishop of the North Carolina Synod, was homilist.

Music was provided by the college A Cappella Choir directed by Patsy Hollar, the Brass Ensemble directed by Dan Sipes, and Tim Warren at the organ and Barbara Hoy, oboist.

NORRIS, BOATMON AUTHOR "FAIR STAR"

FAIR STAR, an illustrated history of Lenoir-Rhyne College, was presented to the college community at ceremonies on November 27. It went on sale in the College Bookstore on November 28.

The centennial publication was written by Jeff Norris, vice president of research and planning. The pictures and captions were supplied by Dr. Ellis Boatmon, professor of history.

FAIR STAR tells the story of the development of Highland College in 1891, renamed Lenoir College, and finally named Lenoir-Rhyne College. The drama begins with four Lutheran pastors who pooled their dreams and their personal monies to secure land in Hickory, North Carolina, for a liberal arts college with a Christian emphasis.

The narrative follows the presidencies of Robert Yoder, Robert Fritz, John Peery, Brent Schaeffer, P.E. Monroe, Voigt Cromer, Raymond Bost, Albert Anderson, Albert Allran, and John Trainer, Jr.

All of the great events of the college's history are told as well as the parade of those who have worked, and taught, and studied here.

The reader meets such diverse personalities as Fritz, who returned to teach math at the college after having served as president longer than any one else; Karl Morgan, who taught physics and later worked on the atomic bomb; Pearl Setzer Deal, who was in a play at the college as an undergraduate and then went on to teach at LR and found the college Playmakers; Clarence Stasavich, the only Bear coach to win a national championship; and Albert Keiser, professor of English and founder of the debate program.

Norris and Boatmon worked on the college history for over two years and its publication was a major event of the Centennial program. President Trainer noted, "Mr. Norris and Dr. Boatmon have indeed done an excellent job. They have given us the story of what-we-are-about for over a hundred years. This will be the first source consulted one hundred years from now at the bicentennial."

OVERCASH AT NASA

Dr. Dan Overcash, member of the Physics department, spent "the best summer of my life" in 1990 at the Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Alabama.

Dr. Overcash was one of 20 chosen to participate in the NASA Faculty Fellowship program.

His mission at NASA was to investigate the liquification, reliquification, and the solidification of hydrogen.

Dr. Overcash noted, "it would take an enormous amount of hydrogen to fuel the shuttle for an expedition to Mars. Thus, there needs to be a way to recycle the hydrogen." This project is called Lunar Mars Mission.

For his work this summer he received a certificate of recognition from NASA.

CANDIDATES AT LR

The campus of Lenoir-Rhyne was the scene of several visits by political candidates in the November, 1990, election.

A meeting of the National Association For The Advancement of Colored People brought Harvey Gantt, former mayor of Charlotte, to the Cromer Center for a speech. Gantt was seeking a United States Senate seat in a bitterly fought contest with current Senator Jesse Helms.

Also with Gantt was Hickory lawyer Dan Green, a Lenoir-Rhyne graduate, who was seeking the House of Representatives seat held by Congressman Cass Ballinger.

LR COED TAKES TITLE

A Lenoir-Rhyne coed has been chosen "Miss Hickory/Catawba County" and will represent the area in state competition this summer.

Christa is an active member of Delta Zeta sorority, Alpha Lambda Delta, Baptist Student Union, and Broyhill Mentors.

“MEN OF LR” TO APPEAR SEPT. 1

In 1989, Kappa Delta Sorority introduced the all-male calendar to Lenoir-Rhyne. The calendar was well-received and was sold-out in its initial publication.

The second edition of “The Men of Lenoir-Rhyne” will make its appearance on September 1, 1991, the 100th birthday of the college. The calendar will parallel the academic year and cover the period from September, 1991, through August, 1992.

The calendar will present thirteen men from the student body, chosen and photographed by the professional studio of Insight Photographic of Hickory, North Carolina. Photographers are James Labrenz and Sally Fanjoy.

Centennial Observance.

“The Men of Lenoir-Rhyne” will go on sale in late August, at the beginning of the school year.

The calendar will be sold from the college bookstore and from other locations in Hickory and the Catawba Valley. Proceeds from the calendar will go to the college.

A calendar of male students first began at Arizona State University and has since been presented on the campuses of virtually every major college in America.

HOMECOMING-CENTENNIAL STYLE

Homecoming, 1990 style, featured a centennial theme. The 2:00 p.m. football game (below) saw a 39-7 win over the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs. The Homecoming Parade float winner was once again Theta Chi fraternity. Featuring a "surfing to the centennial" decor, the float included a volleyball game (opposite top). THE WAY IT WAS —

U.S., IRAQ, PLUNGE INTO WAR

In the early morning hours of August 2, 1990, following negotiations and promises by Iraq's dictator, Saddam Hussein (right), not to use force, a powerful Iraqi army invaded Kuwait. Within three days, 120,000 Iraqi troops with 850 tanks had poured into Kuwait. The United States wasted no time in answering the aggression.

The United States, along with its allies, began to build up a powerful force in Saudi Arabia to answer Iraq's attack. The United Nations voted for an economic embargo against Iraq.

As the Allies built-up their strength (below), all efforts at diplomacy failed. Hussein was being compared to Hitler. In the early hours of January 17, 1991, the United States began bombing Iraqi targets. The war had begun.

At the time these pages were submitted for publication, the United States and its allies were engaged in an air war that could quickly become a land war.

In his State of the Union message on January 29, 1991, President Bush clearly defined the responsibilities of the United States as a leader of the Free World and the need to protect Kuwait against the Iraqi Regime. Both Houses of Congress gave the president numerous standing ovations.

Although there was some scattered opposition to U.S. involvement in the Gulf, a Gallup Poll in January, 1991, indicated three out of four Americans supported U.S. troops in Operation Desert Storm. In fact, red-and-white-and-blue ribbons began to spring up all over the country as the U.S. once again assumed the awesome mantle of freedom and responsibility in the world community.

— THE WAY IT WAS EAST EUROPE IS “FREE AT LAST”

Free At Last! It was a time of change in Eastern Europe. Communism no longer ruled that part of the world. Demonstrators (see below in Prague) brought an end to Communist Party domination. After months of debate and years of struggle, East Germany and West Germany became the Federal Republic of Germany (above) on October 3.

THE WAY IT WAS —

CIVIL WAR SERIES: TV'S NEW HIGH

Television reached a new height in the Fall of 1990 with a magnificent series on the Civil War. Americans were "glued" to their sets over a period of several days as Ken Burns presented his long-awaited epic story of the War Between the States.

Aired on Public Broadcasting and using the talents of actors and historians, it was a wonderful example of television's ability to not only entertain, but to teach.

PRIZE TO GORBACHEV; HUNGER IN USSR

President Mikhail Gorbachev, recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize, is struggling to unite and reform the Soviet Union. The country is in critical economic condition and the Communist Party and the government agree that reform is needed, but they disagree on how to achieve it. Gorbachev (left) remains in control but his opposition is growing.

Food has become a scarce commodity in the Soviet Union (below). As shoppers grumbled, even bread — cheap and always plentiful — joined a growing list of hard-to-get items. Russia is finding it difficult to feed itself.

THE WAY IT WAS: THE PEOPLE

In August, 1990, Joe Montana, age 34, negotiated one of the richest contracts in NFL history with the San Francisco 49ers. He would be paid $13 million over four years to play football. Oddly enough, the 49ers did not make it to the Super Bowl and Montana suffered a hand injury in the playoffs. Two-live Crew made headlines by being in court. The state of Florida stated their album "As Nasty As You Wanna Be" was obscene. The Crew (above right) was released from jail. On May 16, 1991, Jim Henson, at the age of 53, died from a severe case of pneumonia. The creator of the Muppets had a large following. He is shown at left with Miss Piggy.

Arts

The 1989 — 1990 Playmaker season ended with a dinner theatre production of THE REAL INSPECTOR HOUND, a two-act comedy by Tom Stoppard.

Held at Mulls Convention Center, the play was directed by Ray Mills. Laura Wolf was stage manager, Mills was scenic designer, Dave Briggs was technical director, and Christy Gregg was lighting operator. C. Jane Johnson was costumer.

The cast included Karla Droege, Jonathan Ernst, Diana Richardson, Robert Moon, Olivia Narr, Jeanie Fohl, Craig Minich, Nicole Beaver, and Tim Toscano.

Above: Jeanie Fohl (Lady Muldoon) has tea as she sits atop the body of Tim Toscano. Toscano was required by the role to lay still in one position for virtually the entire play without falling asleep. Toscano got the role of Dead Body as a result of auditions held in the college cafeteria. Left: Diana Richardson as the dipsy Mrs. Drudge.

SUMMER THEATRE OFFERED 1-ACT PLAYS

The Lenoir-Rhyne College Summer Theatre offered a "feast" of one-act plays for its 1990 season.

Directed by Dr. Ellis Boatman, the eight one-act plays featured local and college talent in the casts and versatile sets designed by Robert Moon.

For its opener in June, the summer troupe offered "Throckmorton, Texas" which featured Bill Anderson, Martha Anderson, Paulette Davis, Ralph Mangum, and Allen Finley; and "You Don't Burn The Toast When You Have God For Breakfast" with LR staff member Roland Oesterreich and Bob Smith and Joanne Hale.

Also on the initial bill was "Sorrows and Sons" with John Callaham, Frans Bocrsma, and Ralph Mangum; and "Compulsion" with Bob Smith, Allen Finley, and Joanne Hale.

The late September comedy was presented on the campus Quad, with the audience seated upon blankets and munching popcorn.

The evening was directed by Claudia Ward-Eller, with Nicole Beaver as stage manager, Dr. Marion Love as artistic director, Ray Mills as scenic designer, Dave Briggs as technical director, and Christy Gregg as costume and properties chief.

'GOLLIWHOPPERS'—FUN FOR ALL

"CHARLEY'S AUNT"— CENTENNIAL GIFT

As a centennial gift, the Lenoir-Rhyne Playmakers offered Brandon Thomas' long-running and delightfully — funny CHARLEY'S AUNT.

Directed by Dr. Marion Love, sets were designed by Ray Mills with Dave Briggs as technical director. Mrs. Annelle Pegg designed the charming costumes with ladies hair styling by Mrs. Kathryn Cain.

Jonathan Ernst had the title role and performed with great gusto. The cast included David Fox, Melissa Lang, Alan Migliorato, Richard Mosteller, Henry Patterson, Robyn Read, Ray Ritchie, Jr., Hayden Satterfield, Molly Sessoms and Beth Shepherd.

Presented in the Belk Centrum, November 1-3, 7-19, 1990, the Centennial comedy was well received by large audiences.

Athletics

HALL OF FAME

Established by the Lenoir-Rhyne College Board of Trustees in late 1976, the Sports Hall of Fame is designed to recognize and perpetuate the noteworthy athletic tradition of Lenoir-Rhyne College by honoring and memorializing individuals who have made extraordinary contributions to the tradition.

The Hall operates under the authority of the Board of Trustees, according to a set of guidelines established by that group. Hall of Famers must not have represented Lenoir-Rhyne as student-athletes for 10 years immediately preceding the date of their induction and cannot be full-time members of the L-R staff at the time of their induction.

Awards and administration are provided by the Piedmont Educational Foundation. Each year, on the morning of the Homecoming football game, a special Hall of Fame induction ceremony is held, highlighting the careers of each of the inductees.

WOMEN'S SOCCER JOINS LR LINEUP

Having already established a sterling reputation in men's soccer, Lenoir-Rhyne College added to its sports line-up a program in women's soccer.

The Lady Bears began their first season ever on September 5 with a 1-2 loss to Queens, followed by a second loss to Lees McRae on September 8 by the score of 0-5.

Then came three wins in a row: 13-2 over Warren Wilson, 1-0 at the expense of Gardner-Webb and 6-0 over Spartanburg Methodist. This was followed by four painful losses: Anderson, St. Andrew, Elon, and Presbyterian.

The only tie came on October 6 with Tusculum, 2-2. There were two losses at the hands of UNC-Greensboro and Greensboro College, a win over Catawba, and a final game on October 28, a loss to Elon.

The initial season had been a building one. Several key injuries had plagued the Lady Bears. But spirit and determination marked the first-ever effort for the Soccer Lady Bears of Lenoir-Rhyne.

HOW SWEET IT IS!

After a clash with the Belmont Abbey defender and goalkeeper, Guy comes away with the ball to push home the victory.

'90 FOOTBALL — “ALMOST”

The 1990 season for the football Bears of Lenoir-Rhyne College was one of almost unbelievable frustration. It was a season of "almost."

Almost the Bears defeated the National Champions Carson-Newman, almost the Bears took the SAC crown, almost the Bears ended with a high national ranking. Almost — but not quite.

Loaded with talent and led by an explosive quarterback, LR dominated Newberry in its opener, 35-13. A long trip to Eastern Washington ended 45-6, but this was an initial opponent and spirit was still keen. Then came the trek to Wofford and a 41-24 loss.

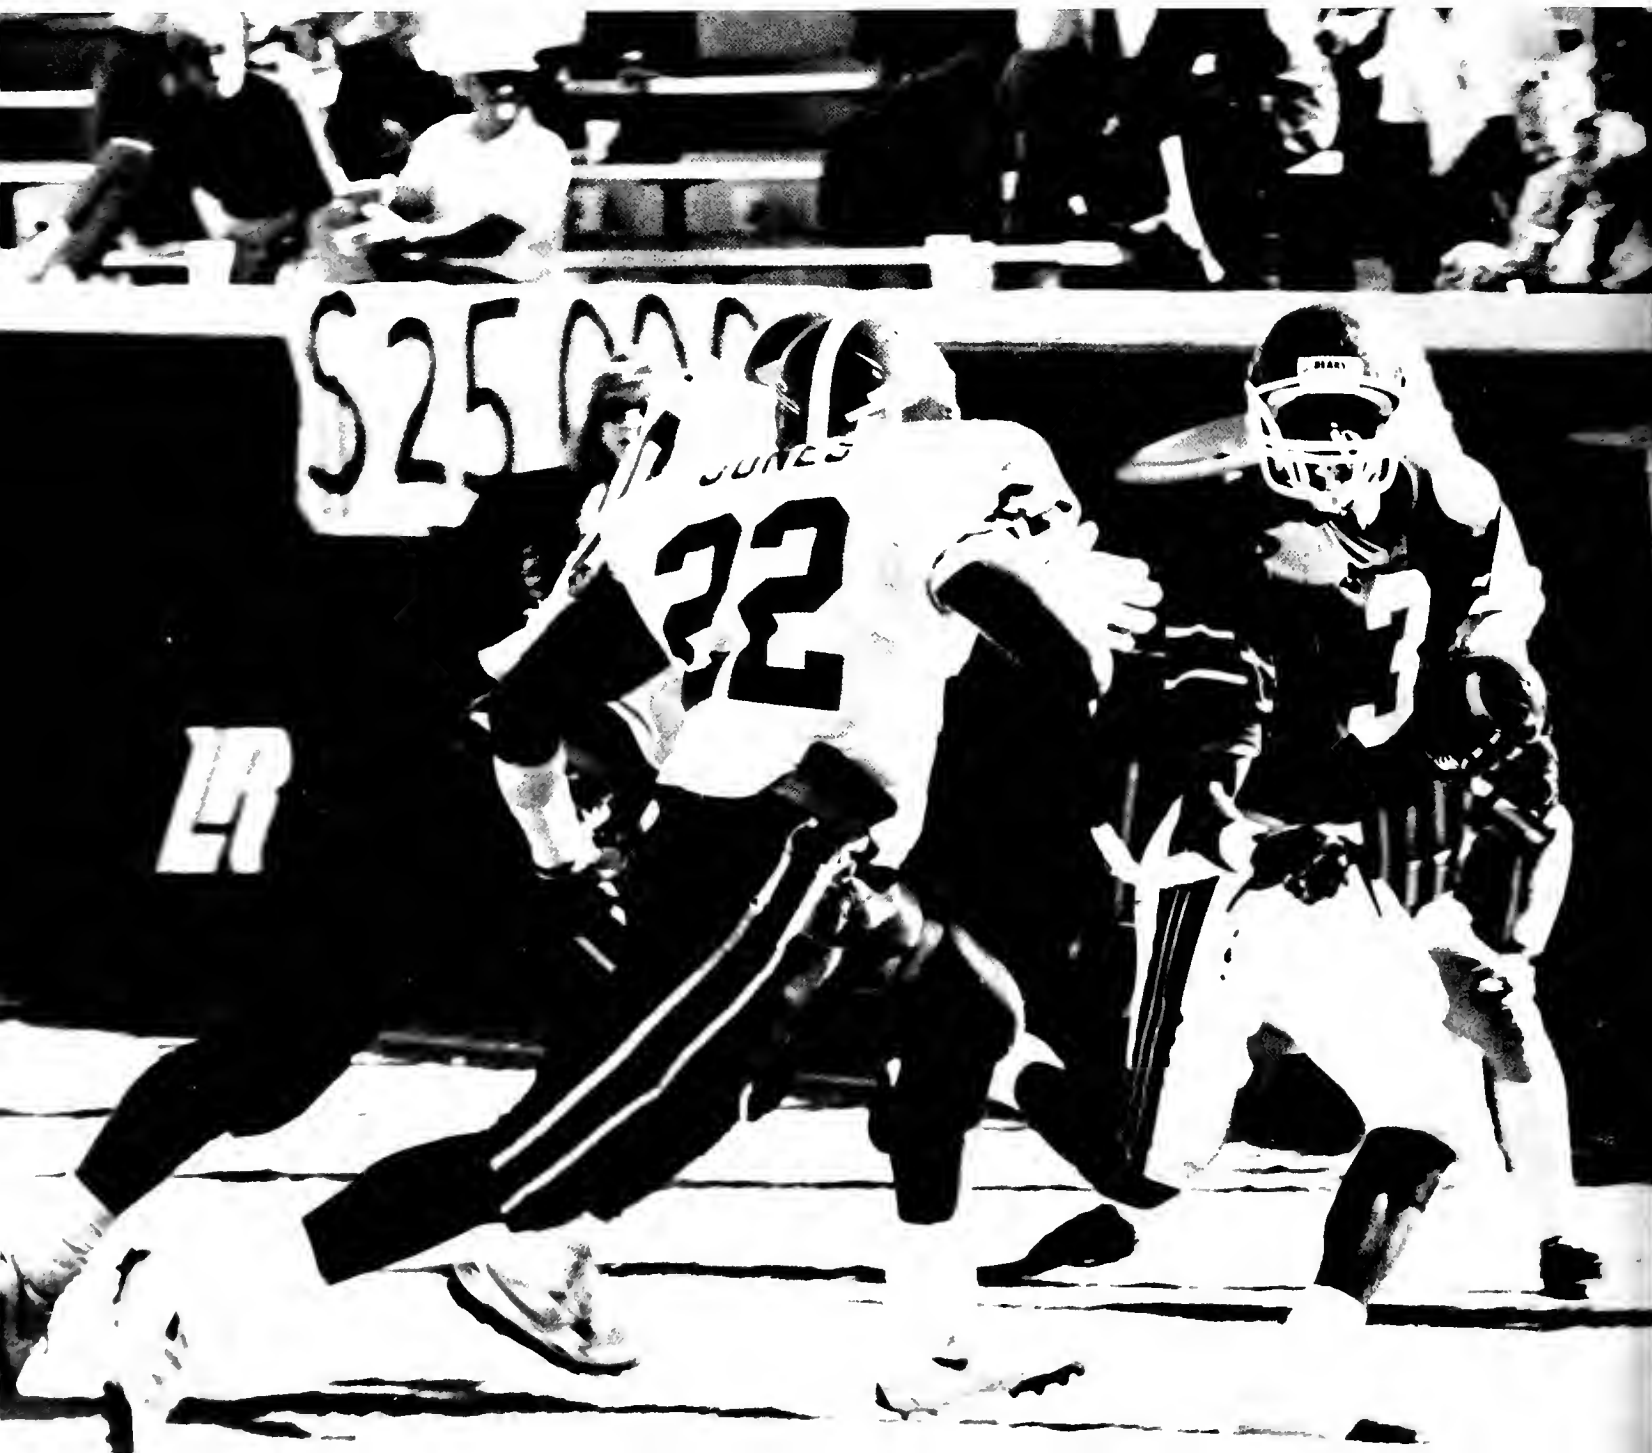

Things then began to click. Presbyterian was badly beaten, 42-17, Elon fell 34-26, followed by Gardner Webb 39-7, then Wingate 28-21, and West Virginia State, 38-8.

Then came Carson-Newman. During the first half the Bears may well have played their single most inspiring half of college football. The Bears were magnificent. They led at halftime.

In the second half the Eagles began to blitz. LR Held on. In the closing moments, Carson-Newman won 28-29. It was a heart-breaking loss.

There was a victory over Mars Hill, 30-14, but then came the forfeit of the PC game due to an ineligible player and a loss to Catawba, 7-34.

It was a season of wonderful accomplishment. A season of agony and disappointment. It was a season of . . . almost.

FORBES NAMED HEAD COACH

After a season of "almost" opportunities, there followed a major shift in the football coaching staff at Lenoir-Rhyne.

In December, 1990, Head Football Coach John Perry resigned, announcing he was returning to his Alma Mater Presbyterian as head coach. He took most of his LR staff with him.

After several weeks of intensive interviews, it was announced that Charles Forbes, head coach at Guilford, would become the new Bear mentor. At the time the HACAWA went to press, Forbes was in the process of putting together his staff.

BASEBALL LEADERS, '91

BASKETBALL NET CRASHES JAN. 19

It was a routine SAC game between the Bears of Lenoir-Rhyne and the Christians of Elon College. The date was January 19.

Some five minutes and twenty-one seconds remained in the first half of the game when Elon's Elworth Smith went up for a bucket (above left) and shattered the fiberglass board.

The game stopped. Discussion followed. A postponement of the game was announced for Lenoir-Rhyne did not have a board to replace the shattered one.

An LR student attempted to make-off with the basketball rim as a souvenir, but assistant coach Craig Cordes "persuaded" the overzealous fan to return the college property.

VOLLEYBALL TALLY: 9-21

The Lady Bear Volleyball Team had an overall record of 9-21, a SAC record of 1-6, and a District 26 record of 6-8.

Senior Jody Petty of Greensboro, North Carolina, was named the 1991 South Atlantic Conference Player of the Year.

Petty scored over 1000 points in his four-year career, is second in all-time assists, and leads in free throw percentage.

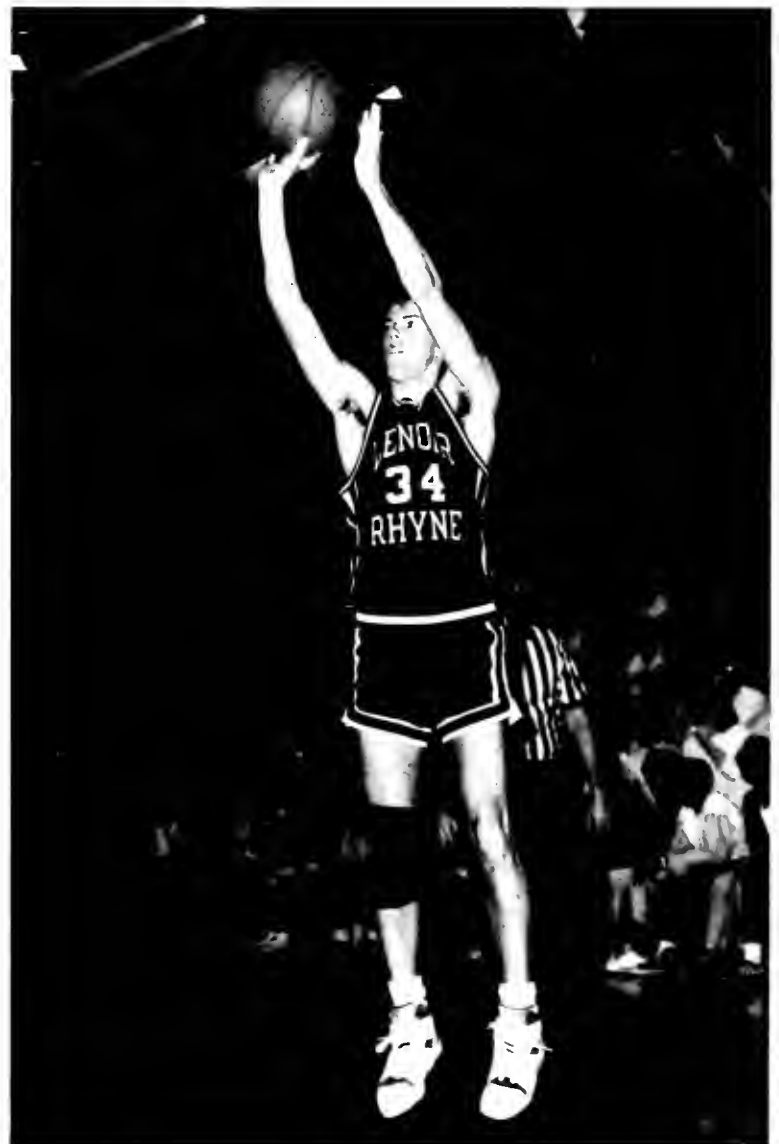

Petty was named to the first team All-SAC and to the first team All-District 26.

BEARS REPEAT AS SAC CHAMPS

Senior John Jones puts it in.

Once again Coach John Lentz took his super-talented team to the South Atlantic Conference championship. And once again the Bears went to the District 26 playoffs.

The Bears' overall record was 22-7. They were 9-2 at home, 6-5 away, and 7-0 neutral. In the SAC, LR was 10-4 and in District 26 they were 10-4.

The Bears won their first twelve games. Then they hit a loss to Garner-Webb followed by a loss to Wofford. Then the wins began to pile up again, concluding with a win over Presbyterian 67-58.

In the SAC tournament, LR defeated Mars Hill before losing to Catawba. In the district playoffs, LR lost to Pembroke State.

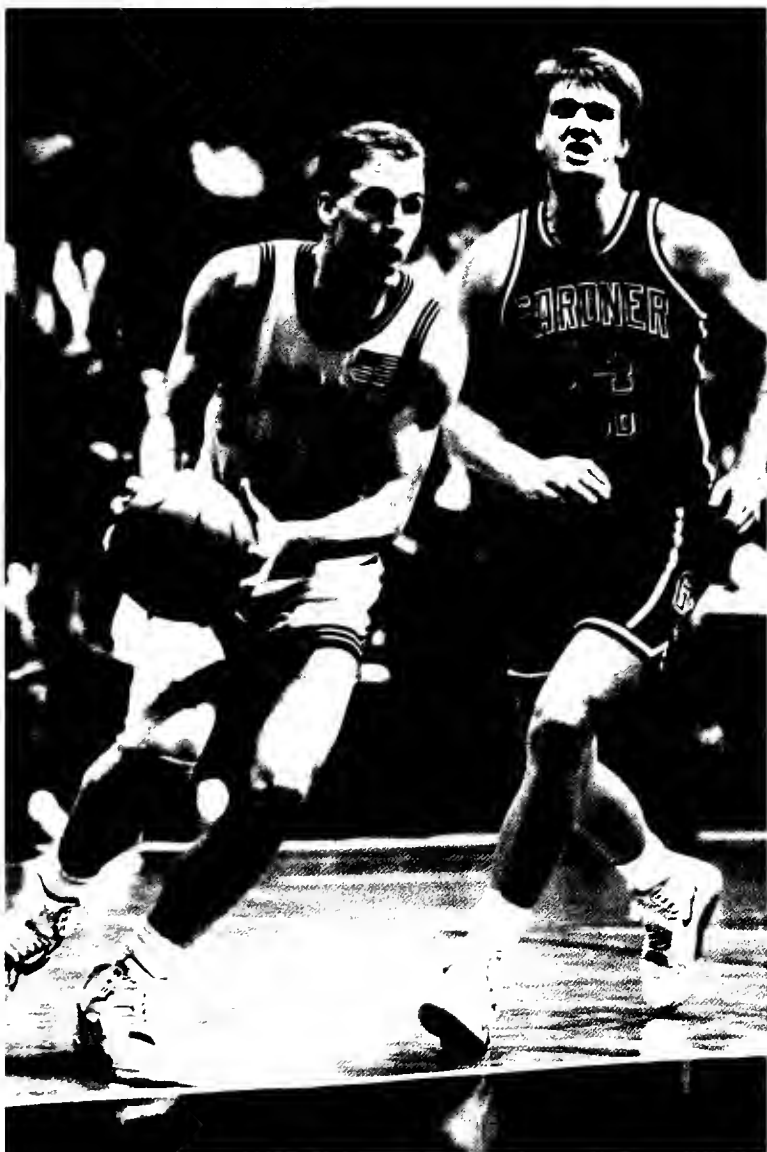

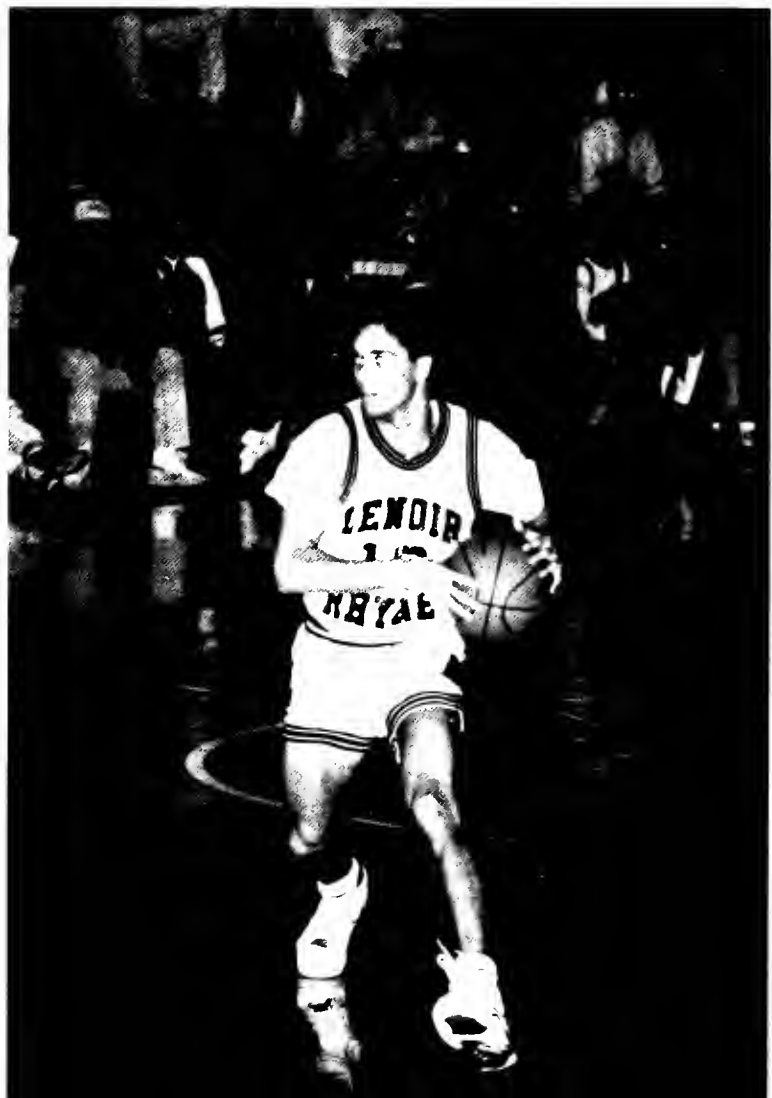

During the first twelve games the Bears were at full strength and nothing stopped them. After the end of the fall term, they lost Jason Coleman to academics and late in the season lost Mike Cottrell with a broken finger.

But they held on, played hard, and took the regular season championship. The prospects for the 1991-92 year appear bright.

LADY BEARS STRUGGLED AT 4-20

The Lady Bears of Lenoir-Rhyne struggled through a most difficult season. Stricken with injuries, they were likewise plagued by several members leaving the squad.

Overall the Lady Bears were 4-20; at home, 3-8; away, 1-9 and on neutral court, 0-3.

In the SAC, the team was 1-13 and in District 26, 1-12.

Christi Cranford, a senior from Newton, N.C. (left) was the super-star of Lady Bear basketball for 1990-1991. She scored 375 points for a 15.6 average.

100 YEARS OF LR SPORTS

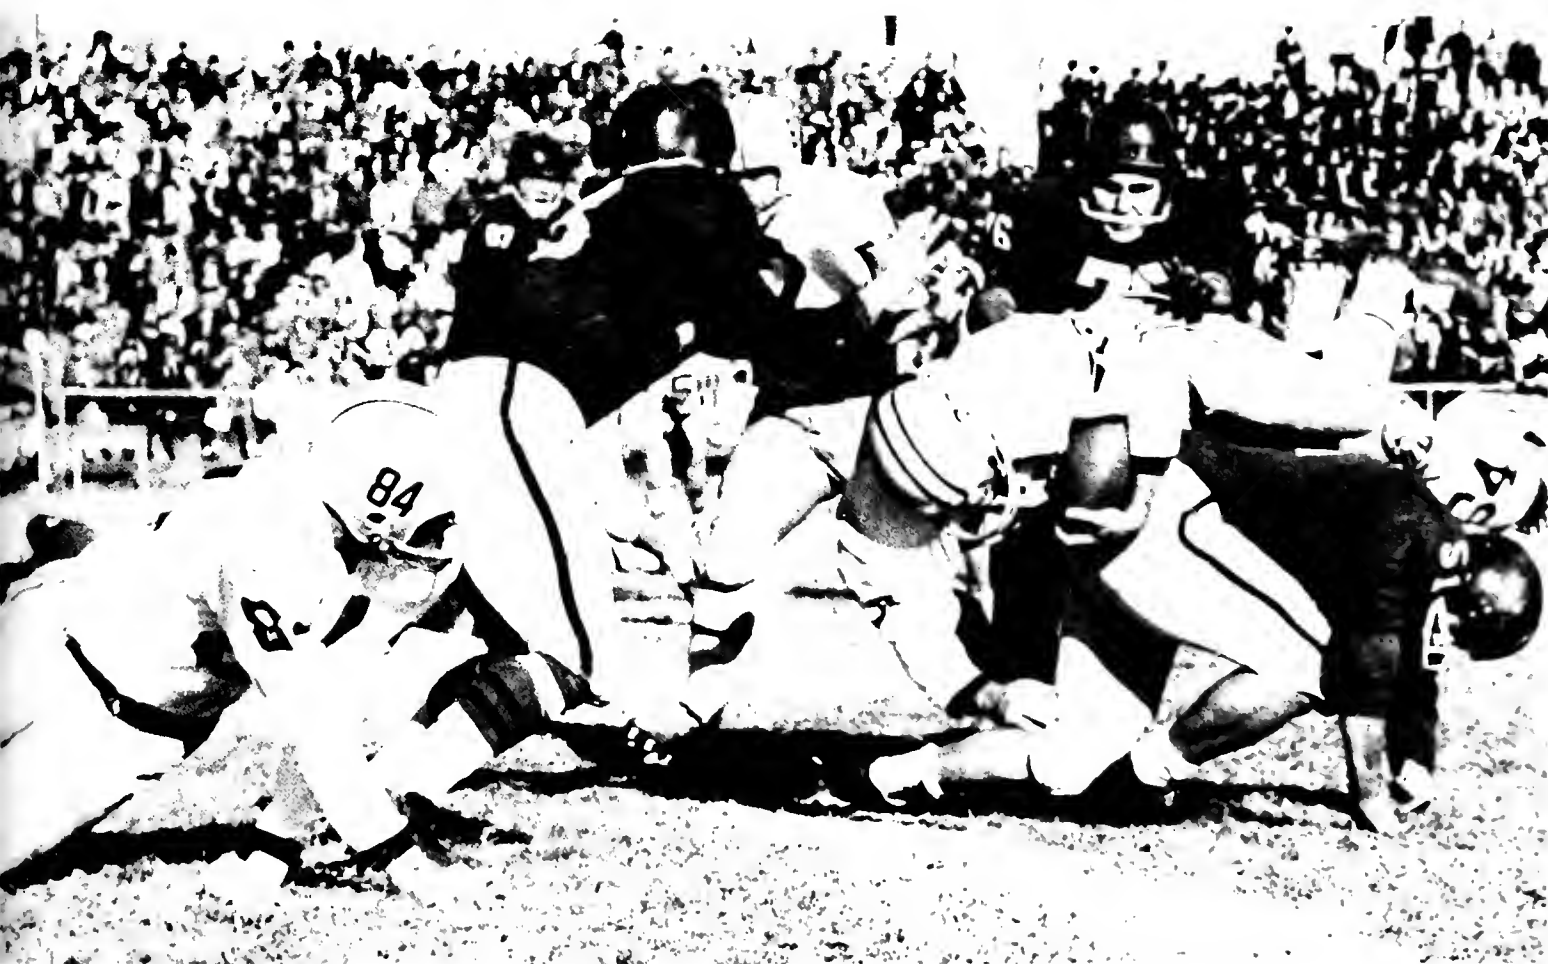

Sports at Lenoir-Rhyne have a rich and varied history.

On January 30, 1903, Lenoir College made provision for a baseball team. Football began in the fall, 1907. Basketball, track, and tennis joined the lineup in 1910.

Basketball at LR has been an exciting sport. Recent teams (1989-90, 1990-91) have claimed the South Atlantic conference championship. Teams in the late 1950's-early 1960's went to national playoffs. One of those outstanding teams from the early 1960's is shown above. Neill McGeachy (#22), Tommy Burton (#40) and Jerry Wells (#52) have each been elected to the college Sports Hall of Fame.

Women have been playing basketball at LR since the beginning of the sport on campus. The team shown above is from the late 1930's. Holding the ball in the front row center is Anna Ledbetter, a talented player. The coach (in the back row) is Pat Shores. At first the women's team was called the Bearettes. Later they would be called the Lady Bears. In the early 1980's, under Coach Pat Smith, the Lady Bears went to the national playoffs.

Baseball was not only the first sport at Lenoir-Rhyne, but with many fans, is still the most popular. Bear baseball members have played with professional teams. The Baseball squads of 1924 and 1925 are among the most talented athletes to play for the red-and-black. Shown above are the 1925 team members.

The Bear Baseball Team of 1990-1991. A team loaded with talent, they are coached by John Hamilton, son of "Pappy" Hamilton, who coached many of LR's great basketball teams in the 1940's-1950's.

READING SERIES AN ACADEMIC PLUS

The academic life of Lenoir-Rhyne is greatly enriched by the Reading Series, sponsored by the college Literary Society and the Catawba County Council for the Arts.

The spearhead of this series is Dr. Rand Brandes (see below) of the college's English Department. He has filled the year with poets and other literary talents. One such poet was Richard Murphy (see right) who also served as an artist-in-residence for the year.

A sampling of the Reading Series included:

Donald Secreast, author of THE RAT BECAME A LION

Richard Murphy, THE MIRROR WALL

Derek Mahon, Northern Irish poet, author of SIX BOOKS OF POEMS

Helen Vendler, Harvard University critic and reviewer for the NEW YORK REVIEW OF BOOKS

Eilean Ni Chuilleabau, Irish poet

Charles Simic, "one of the finest American poets writing today"

PROLOGUE

Editor's note: This page is devoted to those pictures of underclassmen whom we were not able to identify because of company-error. Identification was possible only after the classes' section was completed. We express our appreciation to the members of the campus-community who assisted us in the final identification, and we regret that we were not able to include these pictures in their appropriate class-section.

CENTENNIAL CONCLUSION

We come to the end of our year and to the end of our yearbook.

What a year it has been!

Our centennial has been conducted against the backdrop of a war. A conflict that began in August before we began our school year. A conflict that intensified throughout our Fall term and exploded into a land and air war by the beginning of our spring semester. Then, as we began our spring break came a ceasefire and the sweet return of peace.

Once again our country had risen to the role of defender of freedom and once again strong feelings of patriotism and love-of-country filled our hearts. Some on our campus, as part of military units, faced active involvement.

Our centennial year opened with pomp and ceremony and a sense of pride in Alma Mater. The world, national, and local leaders of the Lutheran Church were on our campus. Our church roots and our Christian faith made us proud to be a part of Lenoir-Rhyne.

We were visited by a constitutional expert, a star from M*A*S*H*, a Noble Prize winner in physics, a masterworks art exhibit, and a national cartoonist who had received the Pulitzer Prize.

An array of poets were with us throughout our centennial year, we honored the discover of the TITANIC with an honorary degree, we had a wild weekend for students, and we planned for our 100th graduation.

We are reluctant to put the final period to this year. We perhaps will not see the likes of such a year again. Our official birthday is on September 1 and the Presidents' Convocation is on September 2.

The September 2 convocation will not only end the centennial but also open our 101st year.

On that note we close the yearbook and shortly thereafter begin our next volume.

Our country goes on. Our college goes on. Life goes on. God bless.

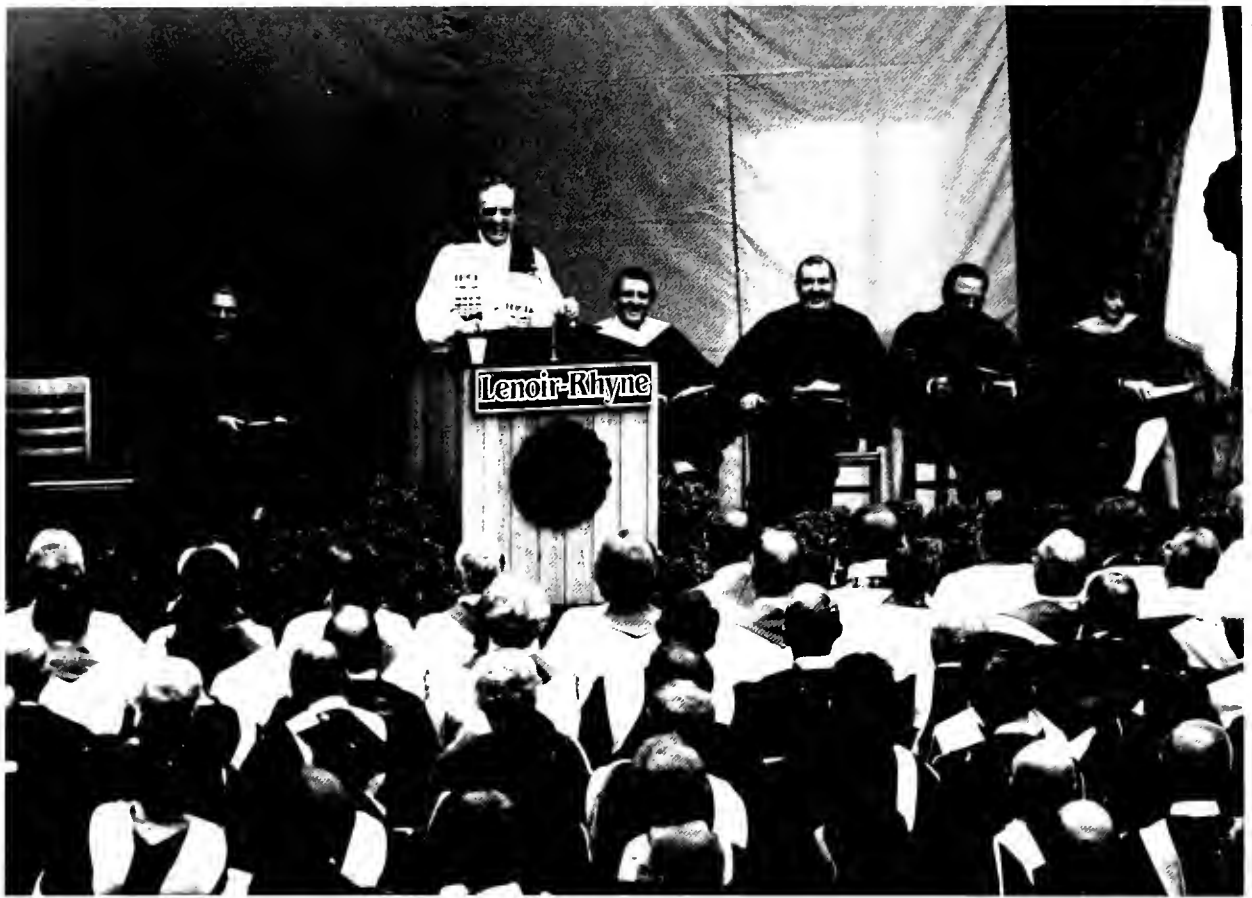

Our year has been about place. This place that we call Lenoir-Rhyne, which has also been Highland Academy, Lenoir College, and finally LR.

Our place has been space and buildings. These linger in mind years after we have left this place. Each of us has a special LR place in our hearts and minds.

Above is an aerial view of our space in the 1940's. The campus has changed in many ways since then, and yet we all quickly recognize things that are familiar to us.

The year — our speical year — began with pomp and pageantry.

And there was a certain sense of pride in everything we did all year.

Above all in our 100 years we have been people. World War II veterans spilling over the Rhyne steps in the '40's, a cake-eating contest in the '60's, and a Black Students' group in the '70's.

We stopped off in Florida, visited the 1890's in CHARLEY'S AUNT, went to South America — and still had time for each other. What a year!

MEET A BEAR

In the 1990 HACAWA we presented, for the first time, a feature entitled "Meet a Bear." It was well received. The Admissions Staff informed us that it was highly effective in recruiting future students.

We present this feature again. The choices were made on the basis of hometowns and general involvement in campus activities. All pictures were made by the professional studio of Insight Photographic of Hickory, N.C. Staff photographers are James Labrenz and Sally Fanjoy.

A FINAL WORD

Just as we have taken bits and pieces of the last 100 years of life here at Lenoir-Rhyne, so we hope that you will find bits and pieces of your year brought to life in these pages. Take the time to look where we've been because it is by looking back that we can look forward with anticipation. A new century of excellence is up to each of us.

This overall view of the stories held within our Halls, Campus, and Walls began long before we were able to see even the faintest glimmer of light at the end of the tunnel of work. I appreciate each staff member's individual contribution to the HACAWA. Especially Christina Hellams for patiently working with the classes during picture time, Edith Wells for always jumping in to help during panic times, my sister Melanie for spending her Christmas break sorting through all the class pictures. Special thanks to those members of our community who helped out without being on the

It has been a learning experience, a challenge, and a joy working with Dr. Ellis Boatmon, our adviser. Your dedication to all you do is amazing. I admire you and loved working with you. Thanks for all your help and support. You are the best adviser I could have hoped for.

Many thanks to James Labrenz, our wonderful director of photography. Dottie Crafton served as our typist, Brian Spahr was staff assistant, and additional pictures were provided by Dr. Dan Overcash, Brenda Abernathy, Jon Hurd, Jeff Willhelm, Dr. Russell Benton, Doug Hinson, Brock Labrenz, Sally Fanjoy, C. Jane Johnson. Our deep appreciation to HICKORY DAILY RECORD for all their help.

To the centennial class of 1991 . . . we made it! Congratulations!

Tammy R. Jones
